Hard-/Software knowledge

Mentoring Probationer Members

Proof of qualification The PGPA is a body supporting professional garden photographers. Full members are expected to be regular contributors to at least one of the following: publications (magazines, books, calendars, etc), photo libraries, commercial or horticulture related websites (including Blogs), private clients, exhibition work, and any other public and/or paid for situation related to horticulture. Applicants will need to provide details and samples of such work, as well as THREE published examples of high resolution (i.e. uncompressed) JPEG files with their application to membership@gardenmedia.co.uk, along with a short reference from a current PGPA member.

The PGPA Vetting Committee will take all evidence into account and will review images on professional skill levels, including sharpness, detail, use of light and composition.

Subscription rates The Subscription Rate from 1st April for a Full Member is £25.

GDPR By completing this form I consent that the Professional Garden Photographers Association and its parent the Garden Media Guild may securely hold my information electronically for the purposes of processing my application and administering my account.
